Doors are definite,
 Demanding,
 Deliberate:
 in, out,
 push, pull,
 right, left.
 Doors defy and defend,
 Deceive and delude,
 Decide and declare.
 Doors are definite,
 Demanding,
 Deliberate;
 in, out,
 push, pull,
 right, left.
 Doors are there,
 Always.

Dedication

The Class of 1964 proudly dedicates its TALISMAN to
Maynard C. Robinson

Who this year completes a decade of service as principal of Rutland High School. Able administrator, understanding counselor, friend and champion of youth, a man whose greatest satisfaction comes from seeing the student succeed, Mr. Robinson truly exemplifies the highest ideals of the educational profession.

TO THE CLASS OF 1964:

The word "Doors" which you have chosen as the theme of your TALISMAN is intriguing. The symbolism of the word goes far beyond the actual physical properties inherent in the word in its ordinary usage. Yet this symbolism can be attributed to the purposes of the common, everyday doors through which we pass daily.

Perhaps the first door was a crude stone slab placed with considerable effort across the opening to a hidden cave. It meant safety and security for the early cave dweller against the marauders of the night. Today the doors of our homes, locked each night, provide us with the same sense of security.

But doors mean more than security. They represent opportunities as well. The doors of our churches and schools are open to each and all of us, giving us the opportunity to worship and to learn. The doors of commerce and industry give us the chance to seek honest employment. The doors of business open so that we can spend some of the gains from our work to purchase the necessities to sustain life and the luxuries to provide comfort and enjoyment beyond the dreams of our ancestors.

Yet none of these doors would be there for us were it not for the doors of our minds. These doors open to receive knowledge; they open to give to ourselves and to others the results and benefits of our creativity. It is this seeking of knowledge and truth; this ability to think, to dream sometimes, and to create; this opening of the doors, not only of our minds, but of our hearts, to the needs of the world and its peoples, that can make Earth a better place for all races and creeds to call Home.

Some doors, you, the members of the Class of '64, have already closed behind you - forever. Other doors stand waiting to be opened. Some will beckon you to come inside. Some will seem beyond your powers to open. Some will lead to beauty and richness. Some will lead only to ugliness and degradation. Many will bear no labels. Each of you will have to make your own decisions as to which doors to pass by and which to pass through. My wish for each of you is that your decisions are wise, and that they lead you through doors to happiness and to a life that is rich and rewarding.

Sincerely,

Maynard C. Robinson

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

America's prosperity is a composite of freedom, education, and cooperation. As citizens of these United States we were born free. Through the education received at Rutland High School we have learned that the welfare of our nation stems from the cooperation of the whole population, regardless of an individual's social status.

As a result of our liberal insights and preparatory guidance, we have the equipment to meet the many foes of our society. No longer are non-conformists and leftist predators a threat to young adults like ourselves because we are matured and primed for life.

Certainly the Class of 1964 wishes to show its gratitude to all deserving of it. Rather than use meaningless words to express our appreciation, however, we choose to depart with the attitude that our most important years lie, not behind us, but ahead. We wish to justify our teachers' dedicated work with social achievements, and, through the goodness of our lives, thank all those who deserve our gratitude.

On behalf of the seniors, with a deep feeling of thankfulness and regret, I say good-bye to the cherished halls of Rutland High School. We have many fears of the destinies before us, yet we are confident that we shall contribute intelligently to our country's future.

Sincerely,

President of the Class of 1964

Paul Francis Shambo

Director
MR. HENRY LEPAGE
Student Director
LYNN NOBLE

"The Tea House of the August Moon," this year's hilarious senior play, was presented in the auditorium on November 15 and 16. Both performances were viewed by overflowing crowds who acclaimed "Tea House" one of the best ever presented by a Rutland High School senior class.

The play deals with the attempts of the U.S. Army to assist the natives of a small town in Okinawa right after World War II. The army sends a trained expert to provide leadership in organizing the natives. But for the expert the carefree customs of the Okinawans are very inviting, and he soon finds it impossible to follow the army's plan. What happens when he builds a tea house instead of a school building and the colonel comes to check on the operation provides for a memorable amateur production.

In the lead role, Lawrence Taylor delighted the audience with his Oriental accent. Also giving superb performances were Douglas Greenough as the expert, Sharon Moran as a native geisha girl, and Reid Bailey as the colonel. The remaining members of the cast were excellent in supporting roles.

Mr. Henry LePage did an outstanding job as director, assisted ably by Lynn Noble as student director.

Members of cast are given briefing by Lynn Noble, Student Director.

How much will you give me for her?

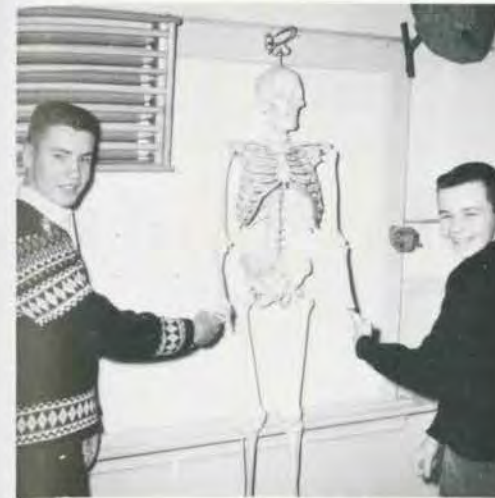

Most honorable Lotus Blossom.

Cast takes a rehearsal break.

Players enjoy letdown in stiff rehearsal schedule.

You say you wish it were what teacher?

Now let's see, where am I?

Notice, everyone is leaving!

Rug-ged.

I wonder how much Marianne weighs . . .

Yes, folks, Charlie took ballet for five years.

Underclassmen

*There are designated doors,
That lead to more designated doors,
That know the underclassmen,*

*Borrow some sneakers
How many sit-ups
But it's raining*

*That close slowly,
That catch wet towels, hockey sticks, and basketballs.
There are designated doors.*

Red and

Sixteen interesting issues, filled with features to satisfy a variety of student tastes, rolled off the presses for another successful year for the Red and White.

A colorful Valentine issue, a clever April Fool's issue, and the customary big graduation issue highlighted the year.

The Business Board, comprising members from the three classes, kept the paper in sound business condition by soliciting advertisements and making collections from the many firms that patronize the paper.

Heading the board were Irving Mac, Business Manager; Trudi Aldridge, Assistant Business Manager; Patricia Spaulding, Exchange Editor; Caroline Pratico, Head Typist. Miss Madeline Buttles was adviser.

Membership in the National Honor Society is the highest honor an R.H.S. student can attain. Ten seniors and thirteen juniors were received into the Honor Society at an impressive ceremony on February 13. Seniors who had achieved membership in 1963 carried out the induction and spoke on the four cardinal principles of the society — scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Two of the main activities of the group during the year were sponsoring the Share project for retarded children at Christmas and selling candy at basketball games. The society completed another year under the able guidance of Mrs. Merusi.

Student Council

Doug Wilson delivers campaign speech at annual election time.

"Student government is dependent on the interest and constructive suggestions of each student," according to Mr. George Sloan, faculty adviser to the Student Council.

Motivated by this interest, the Student Council performs many services for the students and the school. Selling candy after school, inspecting home-rooms, and considering suggestions placed in the suggestion box are a few of the many jobs which the members perform. In addition, they present a citizenship award and supervise the filling of food baskets for the needy at Thanksgiving.

A Lion of the Month and a Student of the Month are chosen throughout the year at the bi-monthly meetings.

Representing Rutland High School at the 1963 Boys' and Girls' States, held at Norwich University and Vermont College respectively, were nine boys and five girls from the class of 1964. These students were chosen by the faculty in the spring of their junior year on the basis of character, leadership, scholastic ability, and interest in government and political affairs.

During their week's stay in June on the two campuses they organized a students' state government, ran for various political offices, took part in team sports and other activities and, as a climax, attended a gala ball with the boys as hosts.

A visit from Governor Philip Hoff was a highlight of the week's program.

Band

The maroon-clad R.H.S. band, approximately 50 strong, played in its well-known and spirited style at many appearances throughout the year, including the Eastern States Exposition at Springfield, Mass. In addition, it added color at the home football games with its pre-game and half-time shows.

Under the baton of its new director, Mr. Donald Boucher, the band also took part in the annual Christmas concert and the Festival of Bands, an all-school concert presented in February.

Chorus

The Rutland High School Chorus continued to delight Rutland audiences this past year with its customary varied repertoire and polished performances. Combining with the rest of the music department, the Chorus presented a memorable Christmas concert, its numbers ranging from the traditional carols to the rollicking "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Several members represented Rutland High School in the Mount Royal Festival, the Vermont State Festival and the New England Music Festival in Connecticut.

Rehearsals were held on Wednesdays and Fridays during first period under the direction of Mr. Donald Boucher.

Monitors

The Head Monitor shows his authority.

Thirty-two members of the Class of 1964, chosen by the faculty for leadership, dependability, and service, comprised this year's Monitor Squad. With their faculty adviser, Miss Katherine Moran, and head monitor Harold Pulling, the squad met semi-monthly to discuss traffic problems within Rutland High School.

In addition to keeping students moving in orderly fashion through the corridors, the Monitor Squad also sponsored a semi-formal dance during the Christmas season. The dance, titled "Carte de Noel," was the most successful in the squad's history.

As its observance of the 400th anniversary of the birth of William Shakespeare, Mimes presented a program of scenes from three of the Bard's plays: Henry V, A Midsummer Night's Dream and The Taming of The Shrew. The production was under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Greene, club adviser.

In addition, Mimes members served on make-up, properties, and stage crew, besides lending support in various ways to the Senior Class production, The Teahouse of the August Moon.

Building their programs around the theme, "Further Your Education by Staying in School," the Future Homemakers of America have heard a number of interesting speakers on such varied vocations as education, beauty culture, and opportunities for young women in the armed services.

The group numbered 22 members this year under the supervision of Mrs. Helen Sloan. They sent delegates to state F.H.A. meetings and contributed to the American Field Service program.

The Varsity Club, composed of boys who have earned letters in R.H.S. sports, performs various services connected with the athletic program such as ushering at basketball games and assisting in the intramural basketball program.

This year the club also presented a variety show and held an informal dance.

Officers for the 1963-64 season were Bob Merriam, President; Dave Trombley, Vice-President; Larry Kurdeka, Secretary; and Sandy McLeod, Treasurer. Mr. Leo Keefe was faculty adviser.

The main purpose of the International Relations Club is to study world problems and assist those in need. To realize these goals, the club sponsored speakers, showed filmstrips, and engaged in informal discussions.

Mr. Peter Sikana, visiting teacher from Southern Rhodesia, addressed the group in January. Mr. Lincoln Fenn was faculty adviser.

Aiding the librarian in her never-ending work, a small group of R.H.S. students give hours of their free time every week. These students, under the guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Greene, check in and sign out books, help file new books, and repair those which are badly damaged.

In November, during National Book Week, they set up and staffed an exhibit in the library.

Continuing to attract students who wish to increase their knowledge of the French language and culture, the French Club finished another year of interesting meetings. Under the supervision of Mrs. Helen Mangan, the meetings were conducted in French and featured songs, games, playlets, and cross-word puzzles.

The Forensic Society was reorganized this year with the purpose "to further the interest in the art of public speaking and an opportunity to practice this art."

Among its activities the Forensic Society sent four of its members to Burlington for a workshop session and held a practice debate with MSJ. Mr. William Spear was faculty adviser.

Faced with injuries throughout the season, the football team compiled a record of four wins and four losses. However, three of the losses were by a touchdown or less. The most heartbreaking game for the squad was a 6-0 loss to Mount St. Joseph.

In the victories, the team ran up scores of 26-7 against Bennington Catholic, 34-13 against Hartford, 46-7 against Bennington, and 31-14 against Middlebury. Defensively the team shone throughout the year, allowing an average of less than two touchdowns per game.

Andy Welch was picked for the All-State second team and Bob Merriam, Larry Kurdeka, Butch Morgan and Ron Sabataso all received honorable mention.

This year's Rutland High School basketball team had a rather disappointing season, with a record of 8 wins and 14 losses. The greatest problem that faced the team was lack of players with varsity experience.

After a poor start, the Raider quintet improved greatly and, as the season ended, beat Bennington Catholic in the play-off for the Southern Class L Tournament. In the semi-finals, the team lost a cliff-hanger to Windsor in the last seconds of play.

Seniors Allan Clark, Hugh McLeod, Alan Cram, Bob Merriam and Gary Swanson paced the Raider attack both offensively and defensively.

Tribute to Mr. Keefe

"As you all know, tonight is our last home game of the year. And tonight is the last time one man can look across the home court and see his boys working as a team, can turn around and look at the student body and think to himself, 'That's my school, that's my team.' This man's name is Leo Keefe, Rutland High School coach for the past 27 years. We have seen this man coach, and know that whichever way the score ran, he still fought with the same determination and the same courage. Certainly the whole school has felt his relentless spirit. We know that wherever there is clean play, there is this man; wherever there is team spirit, there is this coach; wherever there is the drive for success, there is Bundsie Keefe. Therefore, we salute you, and may God bless you, Coach Keefe."

What else — Roger and Jim tie again!

Led by senior co-captains Steve Noble and George Casey, the cross country team piled up an excellent record of 12 consecutive victories. The team, coached by Mr. Hugh Short, placed third in the Vermont State meet.

Among the teams scalped by the Raiders were Saratoga, Vermont Academy, Vergennes, Glens Falls and Windsor. In several meets R.H.S. runners ran up perfect scores of 15.

In the State meet, Jim McGinnis placed ninth and went to the New England meet held at the University of Vermont.

Kneeling: C. Tallon, R. LaGasse M. Dick; Standing: M. Becker, D. Neary, M. Wolinsky, S. Ravit, B. Griffin, B. Mazer, P. Kennedy, B. Smatresk.

The golf team, which has most of its meets in the spring, took part in several meets this year, including the Southern Vermont Schoolboy Championships. Coached by Mr. James Canary, the team placed sixth in the Southern meet and placed well in meets with other schools.

In girls' competition, Suzanne Chaffee won the Girls' Division in both the Southern and State Interscholastic Tournament.

Indoor Track

Kneeling: R. Wormwood, P. Shambo, T. Grassia, Mr. Hugh Short, Coach; G. Casey, J. Cashman, B. Considine; Standing: D. Taylor, J. Russo, D. Brigham, S. Noble, L. Morse, R. Alexander, M. Becker, D. Sachleben.

Indoor track was revitalized this winter as a sport. About 20 boys, under the direction and assistance of Mr. Hugh Short, practiced for two indoor meets, both of which were held at the University of Vermont field house.

Skiing

The Boys' Ski Team had a good season this year, placing in all four of its regular meets. The team, coached by Mr. Albert Martin and assisted by Harry "Rebel" Ryan, placed fourth in the Southern meet held at Killington and Putney, and eighth in the Vermont State meet.

The team was led by senior Roger Howland in Nordic events and sophomore Crandy Grant in both Nordic and Alpine events.

First row: R. O'Brien, K. Norton, R. Howland; Second row: C. Grant, H. McLeod, J. McGinnis, J. Savage, Manager; Mr. Albert Martin, Coach.

First row: D. Tanen, S. Spencer, C. Cook, S. Chaffee, V. Oakman; Second row: L. Myers, V. Childs, N. Canary, S. Sirjane, K. Huntoon; Third row: R. LaVatch, J. Frankiewicz, A. Carris, N. Bones; Fourth row: S. Seeley, D. Wilson, J. Smith; Fifth row: M. Robinson, L. Wilson, B. Schill; Sixth row: D. Arnold, J. Potter.

Coached by Mrs. Maynard, the Girls' Ski Team enjoyed a successful season. They placed third at Middlebury, second at Pico and Woodstock, and third at Maple Valley.

Judy Potter was the outstanding skier on this year's squad.

Girls' Basketball

VARSITY SQUAD

Kneeling: S. Carrara, L. Noble, M. Hawkins, Co-captain; M. Sinos, Co-captain; S. Harper, N. Bones; Standing: Mrs. Joanna Maynard, Coach; S. Hinckley, Manager; D. Ross, S. Thomas, S. Spaulding, B. Torrey, C. Onion, D. Arnold, N. Coltey, N. Barker.

The Varsity emerged victorious in eight out of ten contests. The J.V.'s were somewhat less successful, completing their season with a 2-7 record.

The Varsity registered wins over Ludlow, Chester, Middlebury and Fair Haven. Although there are ten seniors graduating, Mrs. Maynard sees good potential for next year's team.

JUNIOR VARSITY SQUAD

Girls' Field Hockey

Kneeling: L. Carey, A. Thull, M. Knapp, M. Hawkins, R. Mac, M. Dusckett, J. Frankiewicz, K. Thomas, C. Coe, S. Lane, S. Spencer, C. Cook; Standing: D. Murray, L. Stellwagen, E. Albright, S. Thomas, D. Wilson, D. Arnold, Co-captain; S. Chaffee, Co-captain; L. Shortsleeves, D. Ross, D. Tanen, S. Harper, S. Buzzell.

This was the first time that Rutland High has had a field hockey team in many years. Although the girls faced only one opponent, Woodstock, both the players and the coach agree the sport was worthwhile and are looking forward to a bigger and better season next year.

J. V. Cheerleading

Kneeling: L. Robinson, B. Bartlett, J. Frankiewicz, C. Coe; Standing: P. Scott, Co-captain; B. Merriam, L. Shortsleeves, S. Spoon, Co-captain; S. Hinckley, S. Pinney, E. Albright, C. Cook.

Acknowledgements

The completion of any endeavor requires the thought and application of many people whose efforts often go unrecognized. Our yearbook is no exception.

The editors wish to express their appreciation to the entire Business Board of the TALISMAN, and also to the following persons or groups who have contributed in many ways:

Mrs. Katherine Hinchey, for her tireless patience and encouragement as editorial adviser;

Mr. Lewis McKerley, for his skillful supervision of the business staff;

Miss Lucy Doane, for her advice and assistance with the art work;

Mr. Norm Porter, for his co-operation and expert photography;
Gregory Goodrich '64, for his line drawing of the school entrance;

Carlie Onion '64, for her original poems defining the theme of the yearbook;

Nancy Alexander '65, and Linda Young '65, for their typing of the Senior Section;

Mr. Richard Ireland of Bullard-Glencraft Printing, Inc., publishers of this yearbook, for his professional advice;

The staff, for their willingness to help and their effort;

The patrons and the advertisers, for their wholehearted financial support.

Sincerely,

Deborah Arnold

QUALITY . . . 2. That which makes, or helps to make, anything such as it is; anything belonging to a subject, or predicable of it; distinguishing property, characteristic, or attribute; peculiar power, capacity, or virtue; distinctive trait; as, the tones of a flute differ from those of a violin in quality; the great quality of a statesman. . . .
— WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

It's not always easy--- or justified to buy the best quality money can buy . . .

But ---

when sentiment is involved and lasting quality is desired,

You should

Try to obtain the finest quality in materials and workmanship. This applies to once-in-a-lifetime things like your first prom formals — your class ring — your yearbook and . . . later on . . . your wedding pictures. We can't help you in all of these happy moments, but we can, in one instance, if you . . .

Have your Yearbook printed
